PREAMBLE

In order to preserve and secure the principles of our faith, to protect the liberties of each individual member, to provide uniformly efficient spiritual and religious services at low cost to its members, to ensure freedom of action of independence from any religious group, clan or organization, to provide for orderly conduct of internal affairs, in dealing with others, and of governing its members, the Temple of Hmongism faithfully adopted these Bylaws of Temple of Hmongism.

ARTICLE I: NAME, LOCATION, DEFINITION, AND PURPOSE

SECTION 1 – NAME AND LOCATION:

The name of this organization shall be the Temple of Hmongism, hereafter may simply refer to as Temple or Hmongism, located in the City of St. Paul, County of Ramsey, and State of Minnesota.

SECTION 2 – DEFINITION:

The religion of the Hmong, in English, shall be Hmongism or, in Hmong, Dab Qhuas Hmoob (pending more research). Hmongism is the common beliefs and practices of the Hmong people with a complete life cycle of the wholeness of body and soul, the heavenly journey to paradise and reincarnation of the soul, though it may contain some elements found in Daoism, Animism, Buddhism or Confucianism.

SECTION 3 – VISION:

The vision of the Temple of Hmongism is to simplify our traditional religious beliefs and practices and to inspire future generations to proudly adhere to Hmongism as their faith.

SECTION 4 – MISSION:

- (1) The primary mission of the Temple of Hmongism is: (1) to research, revise and simplify the traditional Hmong religion into the so-called Hmongism, (2) to centralize Hmongism out of the houses and into the Temple of Hmongism where its members can worship and perform spiritual and religious rituals, (3) to reduce the cost of Hmong religious rituals, especially funeral expenses, (4) to recruit people to become members of Hmongism in order to save our people from religious and financial burdens, and (5) to provide the best and most cost-effective services to its good-standing members regarding their spiritual and religious needs.
- (2) Temple of Hmongism shall train its own priests, or txiv plig or txiv coj dab, and only those men or women properly trained in Hmongism may perform marriage, shamanism, spiritual and religious rituals for its members within the intended guidelines of Hmongism (or for non-members at higher cost to be set by the Board of the Temple of Hmongism).
- (3) Temple of Hmongism is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Revenue Law). These charitable, religious, and educational purposes include, but are not limited to, establishing and maintaining of religious worship, the building, maintaining and operating of temples, parsonages, schools, chapels, radio stations, television stations, social medias, day care centers, and other projects deemed appropriate to the practices of Hmongism.

ARTICLE II: STATEMENT OF FAITH

The fundamental teachings and practices of Hmongism are reflected in the following statements of faith. Our purpose in stating these basic beliefs is to establish a doctrinal foundation for those choosing to affiliate with the Temple of Hmongism.

- (1) We believe in the inspiration and teaching of Hmongism and that Hmongism is a religion that has been practiced by the Hmong for thousands of years;
- (2) We believe that being Hmong also means that we have our own religion that offers its own uniqueness of Hmong;
- (3) We believe that all Hmong, regardless of clans, dialects and regions, have a common, national religion of Hmongism, and that those practices that are different from clan to clan or within a clan are not national religions but cultural or local practices that should or can be confined within the families or clan;
- (4) We believe that the centralization of Hmongism where members have a place to worship and hold their religious rituals is the best idea to preserve and practice Hmongism in today's modern world, and that it has nothing religiously wrong against it;
- (5) We believe that our traditionally lengthy, repetitive, at times controversial, and very costly rituals have not produced any obvious rewards or blessings but burdens for the living family members, and thus they should be revised and simplified to cut down time and cost, and that this reform shall be handled by scholars, practitioners, and well informed individuals;
- (6) We believe that we should not put so much emphasis and money on a funeral, that a funeral does not have to be a burden to the living members of the family, and that the living spouse, if there is one, and the children of the deceased have full authority and responsibility for the funeral of the deceased;
- (7) We believe that the reform of Hmongism will prevent young, educated Hmong from converting to other religions or become non-religious completely;
- (8) We believe that Hmongism in its simplified form, offering more effective services at much lower cost, will lead us forward, individually or collectively, toward a more financially prosperous and independent future;
- (9) We believe that, while we are still researching for more information, Ntxwg Nyoog is not as bad a figure as our ancestors have made Him to be, and we believe that Ntxwg Nyoog might be the Hmong word for God;
- (10) We believe that God has ordained and created all authority consisting of three basic institutions: 1) the home, 2) the temple, and 3) the state. Every person is subject to these authorities, but all (including the authorities themselves) are answerable to God;
- (11) We believe that every member of Hmongism, as a steward of the wealth entrusted to him, should give cheerfully to the support and growth of the Temple of Hmongism; and
- (12) We believe that the priests or txiv plig or txiv coj dab of the Temple of Hmongism are to guide and provide all spiritual and religious needs to its members, and we believe that the excellent and cost effective services provided by the Temple are what draw people to become members of the Temple of Hmongism.

SECTION 5 – DISCIPLINE OF A MEMBER:

Conduct contrary to the beliefs of Hmongism shall be sufficient grounds upon which any person may be disqualified as a member.

- (1) There shall be a discipline committee consisting of the member(s) of the Board and member(s) of the general membership. This committee shall have the authority to correct the members of the Temple where acts of immoral or improper behavior occur, doctrinal error, heresy, or promoting division in the Temple. If a member is the subject of a disciplinary matter, he or she shall not sit as a member of the discipline committee. He or she shall be entitled to the same steps as other Temple members and be subject to the same discipline;
- (2) Members are expected to demonstrate special loyalty and concern for one another. When a member becomes aware of an offense of such magnitude that it hinders spiritual growth and testimony, he or she should not share the offense with others. He or she is to go alone to the offended party and seek to restore the matter with a spirit of humility;
- (3) If reconciliation is not reached, a second member is to accompany the one seeking to resolve the matter. This second step should also be done in a spirit of humility with the goal of restoration;
- (4) If the matter is still unresolved after the steps outlined in sections (2) and (3) have been taken, the discipline committee, as the Temple representative responsible for settling disputes, shall hear the matter. If the matter is not resolved during the hearing before the discipline committee, the committee shall bring the matter before the Board that the Board may speak to the person and seek that member's restoration. The purpose is not to judge or condemn him or her, as a trial in court, but to win him or her. It is not to humiliate, but to reconcile that member;
- (5) If the matter is still unresolved after the steps outlined in sections (2), (3), and (4) have been taken, such members who refuse to repent and be restored are to be removed from the membership of the Temple and treated as unbelievers;
- (6) If an unrepentant person is removed from the Temple membership, all contact with him from that point forward must be for the sake of restoration (except for family members);
- (7) No matter may be heard by the discipline committee or the Board unless the steps outlined above have been taken.

The purpose of discipline is restorative and remedial. However, if a person is separated from the Temple, they may not be re-instated until there has been genuine repentance and reconciliation, which will be attested to by the head of the discipline committee and confirmed by the Board of the Temple.
